

For immediate release: February 19, 2026

Lindeman named EKPC's Chief Human Resources Officer & Sr. VP

Barry Lindeman has been named EKPC's Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) & Senior Vice President.

As CHRO, a new role at EKPC, Lindeman is responsible for developing and executing human resource strategies to support EKPC's overall business plan and strategic direction. He will focus particularly on the areas of succession planning, talent management, change management, organizational and performance management, training and development, benefits administration and compensation.

Lindeman oversees daily operations of EKPC's human resources, safety, security, facilities and support services. He works closely with President & CEO Don Mosier and the cooperative's executive team to implement and attain EKPC's strategic goals.

Since joining EKPC in 2015, Lindeman has held several positions, most recently Vice President of Human Resources & Support Services.

He holds a bachelor's degree in health services from the University of Kentucky and a master's degree in business administration from Eastern Kentucky University..

— END —

East Kentucky Power Cooperative is a not-for-profit, member-owned cooperative providing wholesale electricity to 16 owner-member distribution cooperatives that serve 1.1 million Kentucky residents at 579,000 homes, farms, businesses and industries across 89 counties. EKPC provides power through coal-fueled plants located in Mason and Pulaski counties; natural gas-fueled plants in Clark and Oldham counties; renewable energy plants in Barren, Boone, Clark, Greenup, Hardin and Pendleton counties; and nearly 3,000 miles of transmission lines. Together, EKPC and its 16 owner-member cooperatives are known as Kentucky's Touchstone Energy Cooperatives. Visit EKPC at www.ekpc.coop.

For more information, contact:

Nick Comer, External Affairs Manager

Office (general): (859) 744-4812, ext. 450

Office (direct): (859) 745-9450

Mobile: (859) 333-8735

nick.comer@ekpc.coop